Dear Phil:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all of your hard work on our various and numerous computer issues. Our network was suffering from age-related issues and we were dreading having to deal with all of the hassle and general misery normally associated with its replacement.

However, you were able to get us up and running with a new server with a minimum of stress. Your flexibility and willingness to accommodate our schedule allowed us to continue to provide services to our clients with little or no disruption. Since our initial contact with you in the replacement of our server, you have continued to be prompt, responsive and very helpful in providing answers to questions and advice.

We are certainly more efficient and secure with your help, and look forward to continuing to work with you.

Sincerely,

Joan Cornelius
